A savagely funny satire of fast-talking, power-playing TV execs. William Holden with Oscar-winners Faye Dunaway and Peter Finch. Adult language, nudity. (R-2:00) Dec 13

RICH CLARKSON/ISI

An intersectional clash between Michigan and Alabama should give two of the nation's finest players—Phil Hubbard of the Wolverines and Reggie King of the Crimson Tide—a chance to show their stuff. Both the 6' 7" Hubbard and the 6' 6" King have excellent moves and are superb inside performers. In this December 14 contest, Alabama plans to showcase its latest hotshot, 6' 10½" Norman Anchrum.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

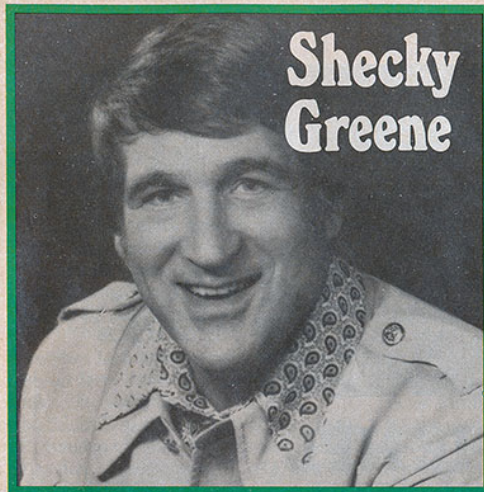

Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson—two of the screen's most provocative stars—ignite one of Hollywood's most controversial and compelling films. They play two rock superstars, but she's on the rise and he's on the long spiral down. A glittering, sensual film with a superb musical score by Streisand and Paul Williams ("Evergreen" won both an Oscar and a Grammy). Brief nudity, adult language. (R-2:20) Dec 18, 23, 26

THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP

It's definitely Dickens for the holidays with the irrepressible Anthony Newley as the hunchback miser who out-scooges Scrooge. Will Nell survive the odds and save the old shop? Find out in this beautiful production in the tradition of Oliver. David Hemmings, David Warner. General audience. (G-1:58) Dec 17, 19, 25, 29

Shecky Greene

Shecky Greene, one of the highest paid comedians in Las Vegas, is the undisputed "King of the Comics" (voted 1976 Comedian of the Year). He's also a singer, songwriter, superb dialectician and unparalleled story teller. Don't miss Shecky doing it as only he knows how. December 16, 19, 22, 28

The rise and fall of a 1960s rock star (R-1:37) p.15

STARDUST

David Essex stars in this taut story of a musician's frenzied rise to superstardom during the explosive sixties. A vivid and colorful film with a dynamite soundtrack and excellent acting by Adam Faith, Keith Moon and Larry Hagman. Adult theme, nudity. (R-1:39) December 4, 15, 22

The funniest military farce since M*A*S*H. Elliott Gould stars as a chemical warfare guinea pig. Eddie Albert, Jennifer O'Neill. Adult humor. (PG-1:36) Dec 5, 11

THE FRONT

Woody Allen plays a small-time bookie who earns some quick cash by "fronting" for blacklisted TV writers during the McCarthy era. It's great fun until Congress asks Woody to have a seat—in the witness chair. The great Zero Mostel co-stars. Some strong language. (PG-1:34) December 2, 7, 19

A tribute to American ingenuity.

FUN WITH DICK AND JANE

See Dick and Jane run up bills. See them overdraw their bank account. See them stick up the telephone company. Go Dick. Go Jane. It's George Segal and Jane Fonda tumbling out of the American dream and into crime as a way back to fiscal health. A perfect screwball comedy and watch for Ed McMahon as Dick's pickled employer. Adult language. (PG-1:39) Dec 25, 29, 31

9:00 BUGSY MALONE

Jodie Foster (G-1:34) p.17

10:45 SWEPT AWAY

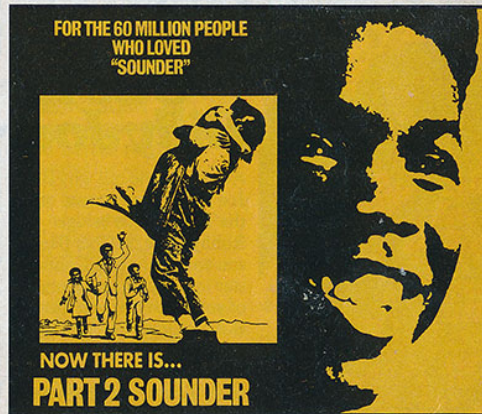

(Dubbed-R-1:56) p.7

Tiny henchmen chauffeur their bosses in pedal-driven limos, guns shoot cream puffs and the oldest gangster is 12 in this original and delightfully innocent family film. Jodie Foster (Taxi Driver) highlights the cast of dressed-up, tough-talking youngsters—from gun molls in flapper outfits to pin-striped mini-mobsters. It's a rare, ingenious and thoroughly captivating spoof right down to the slick musical score by Paul Williams. General audience. (G-1:34) December 23, 25, 28

PART 2 SOUNDER

This moving sequel to the immensely popular Sounder, "not only satisfies but extends itself beyond the original," says Judith Crist. A rural black family struggles to build a school in Louisiana in 1933. Fine performances and the rich music of Taj Mahal make this a grass-roots drama for the whole family. General audience. (G-1:38) Dec 24, 30

OLIVER TWIST

Top-flight animation and sparkling music turn this cartoon version of Dickens' tale into wondrous entertainment for all. Oliver and his cricket friend, Squeaker, outrun the classic villains—Mr. Bumble, Fagin, The Artful Dodger and evil Bill Sikes. General audience. (G-1:15) Dec 24,28,31

The man who Fell to Earth

Unique sci-fi with a fabulous performance by rock star David Bowie. "Beautiful and absorbing." (N.Y. Times). Co-stars Buck Henry and Candy Clark. Nudity. (R-1:59) December 23,27

CASINO DE PARIS

This world famous floor show is as rich and colorful as Paris itself. And its tradition of elegant and topless show girls dates back to the 1890s when the art of striptease and naughtiness created a new type of entertainment. Line Renaud stars in this glittering SRO event. Dec 1,5,11,18,27,30

DIAMONDS

Robert (Jaws) Shaw plots and plays his way through the most breath-catching caper since Topkapi. Richard (Shaft) Roundtree, Barbara Seagull and Shelley Winters co-star. Brief nudity. (PG-1:48) December 2,7,11,27

Ode To Billy Joe

At last we find out why Billy Joe McAllister jumped off the Tallahatchie bridge. Robby (One on One) Benson and Glynnis O'Connor star in this poignant story of young love woven from Bobbie Gentry's haunting ballad. "A remarkably sensitive and powerful film" (L.A. Times). Adult theme. (PG-1:46) Dec 9,13,20,26

"A FIRST-CLASS ENTERTAINMENT."

Time Magazine

Art Carney, as a cagey, old private eye, hangs up his rocker to go gumshoeing with a spacey L.A. lady, Lily Tomlin. Together they unravel the murder of his ex-partner and discover a plotful of betrayals and red herrings in this bright comedy-mystery. Bill (Maude's husband) Macy is super as a low-rent rat. It's a great, late show that moves like a sax through a smokey bar-room. Adult theme, violence. (PG-1:34) January 1

11:00 THE LATE SHOW

Art Carney (PG-1:34) p.20

NICKELODEON

A hapless and hilarious crew of novice actors and their shaky director embark on a venture into silent filmmaking. Peter Bogdanovich (Paper Moon) creates a laugh-filled homage to the good-old flickers. With Ryan O'Neal, his daughter Tatum, and Burt Reynolds, it's a warm, authentic vision of a slap-dash film company making nothing but slapstick. Adult humor. (PG-2:01) December 31

BIRCH INTERVAL

The moving portrait of Jesse, a young New York girl sent off to relatives in peaceful Amish country. The sad fate of her "crazy" uncle (Rip Torn) draws her face-to-face with the complex realities of the adult world as her innocence turns to painful understanding. Eddie Albert and Ann Wedgeworth co-star with newcomer Susan McClung. Adult theme. (PG-1:44) December 30

"a beautifully acted and sensitive memoir of a few girlhood months when things fell apart and came back together with a new maturity."

—Charles Champlin, LOS ANGELES TIMES

HBO SOUNDTRACK

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

HBO covers four big games this month. Dec 8, San Francisco/Stanford (p.7), Dec 14, Michigan/Alabama (p.11), Dec 22, Marquette/Louisville. Hank Raymonds, the tactician who helped Marquette win the NCAA title last season, is the new Warrior coach.

MEINZ/KAUTZNER/ISI

He will be designing plays to get the most out of superlative guard Butch Lee, 6' 10" Jerome Whitehead and 6' 9" Bernard Toone. But they should have their hands full against Louisville and its wondrous leaper, Darrell Griffith. Dec 29, Arizona/UCLA. Another new coach, UCLA's Gary Cunningham, will send his Bruins against Arizona for December's final clash.

How HBO Works

Many viewers write asking how shows are scheduled. Because we feel this information assures maximum enjoyment of HBO, we try to give frequent explanations. Movies and specials premiere Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Then, for your convenience, they are shown at different times on four to five days over the next four weeks. Continued opening runs When shows premiere later in the month, their opening run carries over into the early part of the following month. One to three showings Each month we encore several of the most popular programs from earlier months. These play one to three times during the month. Program Guide Only highlights appear on the front pages, so be sure to check through the entire guide. The schedule is divided into weekends and weekdays and includes page numbers to find out more about the programs.

Holiday Specials Take a holiday trip to Las Vegas with HBO. SRO presents Helen Reddy's smash opening night at the MGM Grand Hotel. And Shekky Greene performs his hilarious nightclub act On Location in Las Vegas. There's also a treat on December 31st. A special selection of On Location comics will keep you laughing right into the New Year!
